

We Are The Lost

Lord Of The Lost

I wanna crawl inside and make you feel I wanna kiss the scars
that never heal
I close the door
and look it from inside
I break the key
I'm blacking out the light

We are the lost
We are the crack
inside your heart.

In the unstoppable end
I will love you or at least I pretend I strip you off to the bones
I clothe your heart in my skin
You will never be alone

When you can't stand it anymore
I open hell when heaven calls
