Come Back To Sorrento

Louis Prima

Sunlight dances on the sea
Tender thoughts occur to me
I have often seen your eyes
In the nighttime when I dream

When I pass a garden fair And the scent is in the air In my mind a dream awakes And my heart begins to break

But you said goodbye to me Now all I can do is grieve Can it be that you forgot? Darling forget me not!

Please don't say farewell And leave this heart that's broken Come back to Surriento So I can mend
