

Can't Wait For The Weekend

Love and Theft

I need a little more than 5 to 9
I need a little more than two days and two nights
I got a little cash
Yeah, my baby knows it
What good is money if you ain't got time to blow it?

Can't wait, can't wait, can't wait for the weekend
Can't wait to have a good time
I can't wait, can't wait, can't wait for the weekend
Gonna start my weekend tonight

Everybody knows it's now or never
Everybody knows it's good and gettin' better
Catch a little buzz
Crank it up and cut loose
If you're anything like me, aw yeah, I bet that you

Can't wait, can't wait, can't wait for the weekend
Can't wait to have a good time
I can't wait, can't wait, can't wait for the weekend
Gonna start my weekend tonight

Friday, Saturday, and Sunday is fine
But I'm up for anything on any day that ends in "Y"
Wait, why wait, why wait for the weekend?
Why wait to have a good time?

Can't wait, can't wait, can't wait for the weekend
Can't wait to have a good time
I can't wait, can't wait, can't wait for the weekend
Gonna start my weekend tonight

Can't wait, can't wait, can't wait for the weekend
Can't wait to have a good time
I can't wait, can't wait, can't wait for the weekend
Gonna start my weekend tonight
