

Love Is More Than Words (Or Better Late Than Never)

Love

You say you love me
But you know love is more than words
That's what I heard
So I'm passing on what I learned
I think about you
But I see thinking is just the door
I want the key
To unlock what I've found out in me
Love to Russia
And Love the States
Love to China
Before it gets to be too late
So put love all over your face
