

Fingers & Thumbs

Lovebugs

Please hold me now, don't hesitate
Soon it might be too late
It might be lost forever
Please take me now, don't be affraid
Don't ever let us wait
'cause it might be the last chance

All in all we've got nothing to loose
All in all we've got nothing to choose

Oh, let me feel your fingers and thumbs
All over me your legs and your arms
Inside of me your peace and warmth
That's all i wanna feel but it might be unreal
Your fingers and thumbs

Please shove me now, push me a bit
And get me rid of it
I know it won't be easy
Please save me now just for tonight
From all the pain inside
Only you can make it happen

All in all we've got nothing to loose
All in all we've got nothing to choose

Oh, let me feel your fingers and thumbs
All over me your legs and your arms
Inside of me your peace and warmth
That's all i wanna feel but it might be unreal
Your fingers and thumbs
