

Bully Catcher

Lovedrug

Does anyone sparkle?
Cries the wolf
How many heroes will die

I see a bully stepping on a mine
He's throwing arms to the sky

I will never worship you
Hold your breath, turn black and blue
Look around you know it's true
Karma's catching up with you

I swear the wolf's got
A heart of gold
Clicking nails down the chute

I've got a bully catcher
Lo behold
There lies a toll for abuse

I will never worship you
Hold your breath, turn black and blue
Look around you know it's true
Karma's catching up with you
Karma's catching up with you
