

Doll

Lovedrug

Dare I look inside, shine a little light
Where the demons hide

No bones, hollow head
Forget the heart, put a voice instead

I'll say what you say
Repeat the words, it is better that way

No soul, push me aside
I'll be right here when your other friends die

Doll eyes don't shine
Shine on me doll shine
Shine on me doll shine

Doll eyes don't cry
Cry on me doll cry
Cry on me doll cry

Days crawl, shedding skin
Running out of things to dress up in

Sunlight, melted gum
Sticking around when I don't want none

Shake out the broken glass
From other play times and other times past

No fun, big surprise
I am the doll with the big dumb eyes

Doll eyes don't shine
Shine on me doll shine
Shine on me doll shine

Doll eyes don't cry
Cry on me doll cry
Cry on me doll cry

Doll eyes don't shine
Shine on me doll shine
Shine on me doll shine

Doll eyes don't cry
Cry on me doll cry
Cry on me doll cry

Cry on me doll cry
Cry on me doll cry

Cry on me doll cry
Cry on me doll cry

Doll eyes don't shine
Shine on me doll shine
Shine on me doll shine

Doll eyes don't cry
Cry on me doll cry
Cry on me doll cry

Doll eyes don't shine
Shine on me doll shine
Shine on me doll shine

Doll eyes don't cry
Cry on me doll cry
