Lovedrug

Remember I told you in life and death Don't bury our secrets, they will not tear us apart Because love means going this far Even when the ending is only the start If you dive into the ocean then I Will be the wave around you tonight If you're sinking then oh, it's alright 'Cause I will be the ghost who is at your side Remember your demons will surface and fight But I will be a good phantom And keep on romancing this cold little devil's tribe And hold them away while you are escaping into the light So tell me where you've gone by now I'm getting no reception on my heart radio Now, meet me where the angels collide And I will be the ghost who is at your side, yeah Now, I'm changing, I am changing Now I'm changing for you, love And when you dive into the ocean alive Oh, I will be the ghost at your side And if you fall into the devil's tribe Oh, I will be the ghost at your side And when anywhere the angels collide Oh, I will be the ghost at your side Now dive into the blinding light © BMG SONGS, INC.; RELEASING THE FURMEN MUSIC; MILITIA MUSIC;
