

Sand Castles

Lovedrug

You hang around and walk as I take a drag
From the cloud that I'm shaking
Now I don't care how much I hurt today
all my bones are breaking anyway

Learn to love the ways you are Beautiful, broken heart
Some wounds leave no scars
Like sand castles we are

I awake as I wait for you all alone and I'm thinking
Now I don't care how much I hurt today
all my bones are breaking anyway

Learn to burn the ways you are Falling down is dreaming hard
Broken bones seem so flawed
Like sand castles we are
