

Goodbye Angel

Loverboy

Another blue Monday morning
In my empty bed
And the sounds of loneliness
Ringing in my head
As I reach for my wallet
Keys to the car
And I saw your picture
Hanging there up on my wall

I can see you in the distance
I can see there's still hope in your eyes
I can see your lips whisper maybe
Your heart wants one more kiss
Goodbye angel, goodbye angel

Angel, goodbye, Bye my love
I promised you heaven
That was no lie, I'd follow you angel
But I can't fly

I never experienced baby
Both heaven and hell
Since we had our differences
It's easy to tell
Remember our music
And how we met
And the letters of love we sent
Kisses so passionate
