

Ordinary Day

Lovex

Reflection unharmed
Cold stares of the strangers
Are like mirror into my life
(Frozen and undermined)

No longer can I
Remember the last time
I was afraid for something
(I chose to give up on everything)

It's all the same
On an ordinary day
I'm in my place
In my disgrace

Nothing's changed
It's an ordinary day
Myself to live for
No one and no cause to die for

Like yesterday
Today I disguise the way
I resent every breath we waste
(Everytime I choose to collaborate)

Go with the flow
Refuse to see the signs
That we're treading the ground we live on
Into a wasteland of American dreams

All the same
On an ordinary day
I'm in my place
In my disgrace

Nothing's changed
It's an ordinary day
Myself to live for
No one and no cause to die for

All the same
On an ordinary day
I'm in my place
In my disgrace

Nothing's changed
It's an ordinary day
Myself to live for
No one and no cause to die for
