

Watch me rot away
Like a beast inside his cage
It's easy to play a judge
From the outside looking in
At a place you already know

I appreciate concern
But its honesty is thin
Your concern lies in the eyes
That my bones are reflected in

People I don't even know
Places I would never go
In my home away from home

I'm in my home away from home

People I don't even know
Places I would never go
In my home away from home

I'm in my home away from home

Watch me rot away
Like a beast inside his cage
