I need some space. I need some open air To breathe. Got to have it. Got to fill my soul. And I Never knew that it was In my blood. I know it might sound silly, But I Would never deceive you. But it stings Like a thorn In my side. Can't help it now. Can you feel it pound? Can you hear the sound Of my wild heart? [Chorus] Beat like a whisper. Beat like a drum. Beat in a place As big as the sun, And I will return If you let me run. I'm a wild, wild, one. I need some grace. I need some Understanding. Got to have it. Got to fill my soul. And I never knew That it was in my blood. I know it might sound silly, Would never deceive you. But it is something more Than just a wild, wreckless, Upheaval. And it stings Like a thorn In my side. Can't help it now. Can you you feel it pound? Can you hear the sound Of my wild heart? [Chorus] Beat like a whisper. Beat like a drum. Beat in a place As big as the sun. And I will return If you let me run. I'm a wild heart. Oh, I'm a wild heart. Yes, I'm a wild heart. Hey, let me run.

Let me run.
