

A Dangerous Thing

Lucero

Well I'm wreckless and free now
You cant hurt me
My heart was not meant to be tamed
And your beauty and charm
Cant do me no harm
So just stop looking at me that way

Well its plain to see your a dangerous thing
With those hips and those lips and those eyes
Well lucky for me that I like being free
Or I might try and make you mine
Well I might give in to kiss you
But don't plan on me stayin' long

Well I'm leavin' town on 40 west bound
My heart aches for no one
I'm riding home
Driving alone
Just me and the setting sun

Well its plain to see your a dangerous thing
With those hips and those lips and those eyes
Well lucky for me that I like being free
Or I might try and make you mine
Well I might give in to kiss you
But don't plan on me stayin' long
I might give in to kiss you
But tomorrow I will be gone
