

Blue

Lucinda Williams

B Gm Em (2x)

B Gm Eb
Go find a jukebox and see what a quarter will do
B Gm Eb
I don't wanna talk I just wanna go back to blue
B Gm Eb
Feed's me when I'm hungry and quenches my thirst
B Gm Eb
Loves me when I'm lonely and thinks of me first

B Dm
Blue is the color of night
Cm
When the red sun
B F
Disappears from the sky
B Dm
Raven feathers shiny and black
Cm B F B
A touch of blue glistening down her back

B Gm Eb
We don't talk about heaven and we don't talk about hell
B Gm Eb
We come to depend on one another so damn well
B Gm Eb
So go to confession whatever gets you through
B Gm Eb
You can count your blessings I'll just count on blue

B Dm
Blue is the color of night
Cm
When the red sun
B F
Disappears from the sky
B Dm
Raven feathers shiny and black
Cm B F
A touch of blue glistening down her back
