

Just Another Song

Lucy Hale

E
1. It's a good day, good cup of coffee to drink
D
It's a good day, no dishes piled up in the sink
E
I'm a long way from the place I used to be
It's a good day

A E
Oh, teardrops have gone
A E D
Oh, then I hear that song

E
R1: It takes me to me and you
E A
Black and white movie I made you watch, then we kissed
E
Oh, I knew I was falling for you and oh, when it's on the radio
A E
That's when it hits me, you're gone
D E
Maybe to you, it's probably just another song

2. But to me, it's a bullet out of a gun
Yeah, to me, it's a knife and a damn rusty one
It's the floodgated memories I don't want to feel
Oh, it's all just a little too real

Oh, just when the teardrops have gone
Oh, why do I hear that heartbreaking, take-me-back song?

R2: It takes me to me and you
45 spinning, I made you dance, then we kissed
Oh, I knew I was falling for you and oh, when it's on the radio
That's when it hits me, you're gone
Maybe to you, it's probably just another song
D E
Maybe to you, it's probably just another song
D
Maybe to you

E E
R3: It takes me to me and you,
E E A A A
Under the street light, you said goodbye, then we kissed
A E
Oh, I knew I was falling into pieces, oh, when it's on the radio
A E
That's when it hits me, you're gone
D E
Maybe to you, it's probably just another song
D E
Maybe to you, it's probably just another song
D E
Maybe to you, it's just a good day
