

Crooked Box

Lucy Schwartz

Say I'm yours, say you're mine
Am I wasting my time
Are we inside the lines of a crooked box

Were we wrong to begin
Did we lose more than win
What we searched for
Inside of a crooked box

And all the world keeps going by
The seasons start to change
But I'm stuck here, not knowing why
The stars have rearranged

And all the walls we made were fake
And now we're feeling two hearts breaking down

So I'm lost to it all,
Stuck behind these four walls
Start to climb then I fall
Behind this crooked box

We were fools to play this game
Thinking it wouldn't be the same
Cause nobody changes
inside of a crooked box

And all the world keeps going by
The seasons start to change
But I'm stuck here, not knowing why
The stars have rearranged

And all the walls we made were fake
And now we're feeling two hearts breaking down

All the walls we made were fake
And now we're feeling two hearts breaking down
Breaking down
Breaking down

Say I'm yours say your mine
