

Ladykiller

Lucy Woodward

How do you see me now
A weeping willow or a girl with a crown
An angel or a siren taking you down
Either way I know you're gonna win
I try to do right but from out the dark
You came to ignite
My bliss my pain to hold me down tight
If this is my fate, you're gonna win
If love's a bore, oh matador, don't fight me
An eye to eye you colorblind me, sweetly

Take my heart and my kiss
Don't set me free
Be my nemesis, oh, I'm at ease
C'mon, c'mon, c'mon, you're my Ladykiller
You're gonna shatter me

Well, I'll help you forget who you are
And the last time you wept
Put out the fire in your intellect
Yeah, this turned into a whole other game
The long lost child
The wink, your smile unwinds me
For love is cruel, a lonesome duel, now sweetly

Take my heart and my kiss
Don't set me free
Be my nemesis, oh, I'm at ease
C'mon, c'mon, c'mon, you're my Ladykiller
I'm gonna let you in
Help you set the scene
Play the innocent of the tragedy
C'mon, c'mon, c'mon, you're my Ladykiller
You're gonna shatter me
C'mon, c'mon, c'mon

Ladykiller, Ladykiller
Ladykiller, Ladykiller
Oh, here is my heart
Don't set me free
Be my nemesis, oh, I'm at ease
C'mon, c'mon, c'mon, you're my Ladykiller
I could die tonight, leave you my body
Play the innocent of the tragedy
C'mon, c'mon, c'mon, you're my Ladykiller
You're gonna shatter me
