

Love is gonna getcha

Lucy Woodward

She glitters when she walks
Quivers when she talks
And kills you when she's gone
And oh it's such a lovely mess
It's passion at its best
And you're thinkin' something's wrong

The ground underneath you
Will crack and break
You'll shiver and tremble
Your soul will shake
Sooner or later you'll wanna fall
Cause love is gonna getcha afterall

So turn on the smiley face
Run to your darkest place
Crawl back into your shell
And suffer, suffer till you bleed
It's loneliness you breath
She's worth it can't you tell

The ground underneath you
Till crack and break
You'll shiver and tremble
Your soul will shake
Sooner or later you'll wanna fall
Cause love is gonna getcha afterall

Sometimes I wonder
If love's gonna get me
Sometimes I wonder
If it's ever gonna come at all
Sometimes I wonder
If I'm gonna die lonely
My friends keep saying
Hold on, hold on

The ground underneath you
Will crack and break
You'll shiver and tremble
Your soul will shake
Sooner or later you'll wanna fall
Cause love is gonna getcha
Love is gonna getcha
Love is gonna get you afterall
