

Boy Meets Girl

Lulu

Boy meets girl but then they fall in love
Take about to be, two'er than two eternally
Time goes by and out of love they fall
It's the same sad story, lovers, it's pain and it's glory

Baby, though I done you wrong don't think that you'll be Guy, give me one more chance, say you'll be staying around
Don't fall for first sight stories, just be gone
Let the bottom fall, don't close the book on chapter one

Give it one more try, I'll guess that

Boy meets girl but then they fall in love
Take about to be, two'er than two eternally
Time goes by and out of love they fall
It's the same sad story, lovers, it's pain and glory

Baby, I paid you for a fool but then I
Sell, should've known it's only you and there's no one else
Don't chalk it up, ain't, babe, don't turn your back
We can get it straight, we can get our train back on the track

Give it one more try, 'cause I love you

Boy meets girl but then they fall in love
Take about to be, two'er than two eternally
Quarrel starts, soon they fall, they fall apart
It's the same sad story, lovers, it's pain and glory

(Boy meets girl, girl meets boy)
Yes, they do now
(Boy returns and that makes two)
And I love you now

(Boy meets girl, girl meets boy)
I got love so true, yeah
(Boy returns and that makes two)
Honey, I need you, yeah
