

Restless Moods

Lulu

Why don't you call me honey?
I know how you feel
You know I'll be here

Broken dreams and promises
Giving you the runaround
They tie you up, they tie you down
Your life is built on shaky ground

Deep is the frustration
So easy to lose yourself
Don't know why the days go by
The magic, it just seems to die
When people laugh 'cause laughing's fun you toss, you turn, you wanna run

So hard to believe that You're someone who really cares

Oh I
Don't you call me in your restless moods
(Don't wanna hear from you)
Well, I know I let you down
Take a chance, I'll turn things around

You're getting tired of standing still Ambitions high, you must fulfill
And I know it's hard, but I'll be here to help you reach
You've got the will
You have every reason
For being here

Oh I
Don't you call me in your restless moods
(Don't wanna hear from you)
Well, I know I let you down
Take a chance, I'll turn things around

For I
Oh, I'm feeling oh so restless, too
(I wanna hear from you)
Up and down, and spinning round
I need for you to love me, too

You have every reason
For being here

Oh I
Don't you call me in your restless moods
(Don't wanna hear from you)
Well, I know I let you down
Take a chance, I'll turn things around

For I
Oh, I'm feeling oh so restless, too
(I wanna hear from you)
Up and down, and spinning round

I need for you to love me, too

Oh I

Don't you call me in your restless moods

(Don't wanna hear from you)

Well, I know I let you down

Take a chance, I'll turn things around
