

Hypnotized

Lunic

In the calm after the storm there's a light under the door
In a straight line
it shines Flickering it disappears
and the shadows hide my tears
This time
I cry
Where are you?
You
Rainbows dance across your face
In this wild and empty space
I hide
hypnotized
And the warmth within your gaze takes me to a better place up high
I fly
to you
Gone
Blue
You
Where are you?
You
