

Daphne

Lycia

this light glares hard, and I'm here the sun beats so hard, and I'm here then I slip back to another day, a simple day and I creep back, and I want to be with Daphne she's so simple, she's so pure, she's so, so, so...
she don't care, oh Daphne, do you remember me? Daphne this day drags hard, and I'm here these days stall so hard, and I'm here then I sink back to another day, a simple day
and I creep back, and I want to be with Daphne do you remember me?
