

Fades Down Far

Lycia

Today the mood is broken
I'm restless and I'm so afraid
The outside seems so distant
The day, it fades down far
And I move through another...
Another day that's just the same
Today the day is broken
The day, it fades down far
Another distant morning
I stare over the vacant field
So white and gray and broken
The day, it fades down far
Fades down far
