Wild, Wild, Wild

Lyfe Jennings

Everybody wants a mansion and a yacht
Billboard charts they want that number one spot
Even if it means rap, im gon get shot
Tru entertainment story
Everybody wants to be a superstar
To be a superstar, I've seen her turn porn star
Pull up in that car everyone yelling out star
Tru Hollywood story, gota live in the glory

I've told you bout the accidents
I've come to tell ya about the genesis
And you cant end your time
God created man in his own design
Man dun lost their mind
They going gon wild, wild, wild
Them girls dun lost their mind
Girl's gon wild, wild wild

Everybody wants to be a kingpin
Standing on the block slanging forty king pins
Soon as you get neck, you snitching on the kingpin
Tru hood ghetto story, no honor, no glory
Everybody wana say they having safe sex
But don nobody wanna go and take the test
Some take the test, and they come back stressed
Tru hood classic story, protect your glory

I've told ya bout the accidents
I've come to tell ya about the genesis
And you can't end your time
God created man in his own design
Man dun lost their mind
They going gon wild, wild, wild
Them girls dun lost their mind
Girl's gon wild, wild wild

I don wan live, I don wana die
I've been lying to myself so long I
Starting believing in it, started agreeing with Illusions, it's a confusion
Love is what I'm doing
Ways to stay pure
It kills the spirit

I've come to tell ya bout the accidents
I've come to tell ya about the genesis
And you can give no time
God created man in his own design
Man dun lost their mind
They going gon wild, wild, wild
Them girls dun lost their mind
Girl's gon wild, wild wild
