

It's time to set your demons free
I'm getting closer to the end of line
I can't help the way I am
Right now fuck
You can't be something you're not
Too young for ones conclusion
No one can piss on this determination

Yeah
It's nothing to change
You know you got it when you go insane
It can't stay the same
I'm reaching into you
I'll make you understand
It may piss you off
It might be shit

Negative takes it's toll
Constant release and hold
Beware the trust that you instill in me
And now there's nothing I hate as much
Now there's nothing I hate as much

Yeah
It's nothing to change
You know you got it when you go insane
It can't stay the same
I'm reaching into you
I'll make you understand
It may piss you off
It might be shit

Oh, I hate that shit
I don't give a fuck

Oh, I hate that shit
I don't give a fuck

It's chance to save my soul
And my concern is now in vain
I thought I was alone
I did not care to look around
One day we all will die
Is this too much for them to take?
The releasing of anger can better any medicine under the sun
