One Thing

Lynyrd Skynyrd

I met the man, when I was fifteen Seen him in all the papers, on T.V. and magazines So I had to ask him, what's the difference between Those who make a wish, those who spin wheels And those who ride in white limosines like you, mister Won't you tell me one thing

Some have the passion and they control the ride Some settle for whatever happens As years pass they see their lives just slip on by The world keeps a' turnin' It'll leave you behind Nothin' else matters, nothin's worth learnin' Until the dream you have inside

[chorus]
It's the one thing, the one thing there's no denyin'
So find yourself a dream and some piece of mind
'Cause money and power won't buy it
It's the one thing, nothin' else matters

And somewhere you might have heard the good times are through And good luck is somethin' you're born with I know it just ain't true The world keeps a' turnin' I wouldn't tell you no lie Nothin' else matters, nothin's worth learnin' Until the dream that you have inside

[repeat chorus]

Nothin' else matters
