

Still Unbroken

Lynyrd Skynyrd

Broken bones, broken hearts
Stripped down and torn apart
A little bit of rust, I'm still runnin'

Countin' miles, countin' tears
Twisted roads, shiftin' gears
Year after year, it's all or nothin'

But I'm not home, I'm not lost
Still holdin' on to what I got, ain't much left
No, there's so much that's been stolen

I guess I've lost everythin' I've had
But I'm not dead, at least not yet
Still alone, still alive, still unbroken
I'm still alone, still alive, I'm still unbroken

Never captured, never tamed
Wild horses on the plains
You could call me lost, I call it freedom

I feel the spirit in my soul
It's something Lord, I can't control
I'm never givin' up while I'm still breathin'

I'm not home, I'm not lost
Still holdin' on to what I got, ain't much left
Lord, there's so much that's been stolen

I guess I've lost everythin' I've had
I'm not dead, at least not yet
Still alone, still alive, still unbroken
I'm still alone, still alive, still unbroken
I'm still unbroken, still unbroken

Like the wind, like the rain
It's all runnin' through my veins
Like a river pourin' down into the ocean

I'm out here on the streets
But I'm standin' on my feet
Still alive, still alone, still unbroken

I'm not home, I'm not lost
Still holdin' onto what I got, ain't much left
Lord, there's so much that's been stolen

I guess I've lost everythin' I've had
But I'm not dead, at least not yet
Still alive, still alone, still unbroken
I'm still alone, still alive, I'm still unbroken

I'm still alone, still alive, still unbroken
I'm still broken
I ain't never goin' down
I'm still unbroken, oh
