

Angel St

M People

If you think the World owes you a ride
you'll never find the reason why.
Boy you know it's down to you.
Lookin' down you'll only see your own two feet.
Mama used to say to me
take a walk down Angel St.
So sweet thing have I got news for you come and taste my soul food.
So what have you got to lose

Angel Street.
Stand on your own two feet
'cos baby can't you see
if were to stay alive
only the strong survive.

Don't you know if you can't respect yourself
you'll be left on the shelf
no one's gonna carry you.
Walkin' tall dreamin' of love and pride
reachin' up to the sky
arms and eyes are open wide.
So come on let's climb the stairs out of this
make a wish and steal a kiss
boy what have you got to lose.
