

Angel Street

M People

If you think, the world owes you a ride,
You'll never find the reason why,
Boy you know it's down to you.

Looking down, you'll only see your own two feet,
Mama used to say to me,
Take a walk down Angel Street.

So sweet thing,
Have I got news for you,
Come and taste my soul food,
So what have you got to lose?

Angel Street,
Stand on your own two feet,
'Cos baby can't you see?
If weire to stay alive
Only the strong survive.

Don't you know, if you can't respect yourself,
You'll be left on the shelf,
No one's gonna carry you.

Walkin' tall, dreamin' of love and pride
Reachin' up to the sky
Arms and eyes are open wide.

So come on, lets climb the stairs out of this,
Make a wish and steal a kiss,
Boy what have you got to lose?

Angel Street,
Stand on your own two feet,
'Cos baby can't you see?
If were to stay alive
Only the strong survive.

Angel Street,
Stand on your own two feet,
'Cos baby can't you see?
If were to stay alive
Only the strong survive.

(Take a walk, Take a walk, on Angel Street)
(Take a walk, Take a walk, on Angel Street)
(Take a walk, Take a walk, on Angel Street)

Only the strong survive,
Way way down

Angel Street,
Stand on your own two feet,
'Cos baby can't you see?
If were to stay alive
Only the strong survive.

Angel Street,

Stand on your own two feet,
'Cos baby can't you see?
If were to stay alive
Only the strong survive.

(Angel Street)
(Angel Street)
(Angel Street)
(Angel Street)