

Just Like Jenny

Macy Gray

Just like Jenny
I wanna get to the sky
But I don't wanna die today
Just like Jenny
I wanna get to the sky
But I don't wanna die today

Dear God would you build me a bird
So I can fly, fly far away
To a place, to a wonderful world
Where we get higher every day
When I go and plant me a money tree
Won't nobody take it from me
Dear God, would you build me a bird
So I can fly, fly far away

Just like Jenny
I wanna get to the sky
But I don't wanna die today
Just like Jenny
I wanna get to the sky
But I don't wanna die today

Well it don't matter if you're black or white
And really what difference does it make?
If you're gay or if you're straight you like who you like
As long as it's love that you make
Dear God, build me a bird
So I can fly, fly far away

Just like Jenny
I wanna get to the sky
But I don't wanna die today
Just like Jenny
I wanna get to the sky
But I don't wanna die today
Just like Jenny
I wanna take the drug
I wanna fall in love, I say
Just like Jenny
I wanna disappear
And maybe reappear one day
Just like Jenny
I wanna travel alone
I wanna come back home, I say
Just like Jenny
Yeah, ooh, whoa-oh
Whoa-oh, yeah
Oh yeah, oh yeah
I don't wanna die today

Dear God would you build me a bird
So I can fly, fly far away
Dear God would you build me a bird
