

one more distorted mind a victim of vietnam canal back to the society out of the green hill forgot a word called love forgot a word called peace and how the fuck he should care? he saw the hell on earth don't care about questions, don't care about lies a man without feelings forgot how to cry he hears the angels sing in heaven and the devils screams in hell godless fucking man who don't give a damn he's a killer
the bitter taste of napalm sticks on his tongue nightmares about burning babies after the work was done and what the fuck he was fighting for nobody knows the price he paid was his life and this was too high don't care about questions... in his dark clouded brain the war still goes on he grabs the machine gun hits the road to have some fun a dark clouded brain, machine guns and war he hits the road goes out to have some fun
don't care about questions... the mornings nice the sun shines so bright and the news tells about the massacre last night a maniac killed 70 people so far just another victims of the goddamned war
don't care about questions... killer killer killer outside of the society killer....
