

Hold It Down

Madball

enough times been wasted and now im faced with our realities and d whats to come of this scene.
so many come and go, some have disgraced it.
i think its time we take a stand show them what we mean.
you cant stop this, this thinkg of ours.
this things is ours, hardcore is ours.
time after time, line after line.
i must express the truth cuz that is what we stand for.
some live to lie they will defy and deny our roots i pay no mind.
you no who we care for.
and im not only speaking for myself i cant.
i hope i speak for everyone else out there.
cuz a lot of people think that we dont care.
but they cant stop what im bringing cant stop what im bringing.
tryin to make a change do what i can.
they cant stop what im bringing cant stop what im bringing.
you cant stop what we're bringing.
tryin to make a change and hold it down cuz we can
