Take by force Revolt Take by force Take action Don't be misled Find a solution Take by force Take chances Those in position Start the revolution We need change We need you In my world there's no left or right There's only common sense here You can save your politics and all that come with it For those easily swayed I'm not one of them You're not one of them I stand here fearless Using the tools of my trade My voice is my weapon Take by force Take action Don't be misled Find a solution Take by force Take chances Those in position Start the revolution We need change We need you It's not anarchy that I desire But there's a need for intervention Open your eyes Open your minds This is your life You either do or you don't You die or you won't Stand up for what you believe in I know you have it in you I found it within myself So choose Will you stand up? Will you be heard? Will you be first? I will Take by force Start the revolution
