

Forget About You

Madchild

All I want to do is forget about you
All I want to do is get you out of my head
All I want to do is forget about you
All I want to do is forget about you, and the things you do, to me
Oh baby, it's not your fault
It just wasn't meant to be

I'm going crazy
How could you leave me?
Do anything to get you back, please believe me
Since you left it's been downhill ever since
Just come back, we'll pretend that you never left
'Cause you make my life complete
Now I'm losing weight and I don't like to eat
Sent you flowers and a stuffed animal, what, you didn't get 'em?
You better not be fucking someone or you'll both regret it
I know I'm so pathetic, everything is copacetic
This could really get to me, but I won't let it
You're so cute and sweet and petit
I think about you with other guys and beat my meat

I guess I'm sorry I was mean to you (mean to you)
I never meant to make you sad
If I had the chance to change my ways, I'd probably stay the same
Don't ask me to apologize
'Cause I'm a piece of shit

All I want to do is forget about you
All I want to do is get you out of my head
All I want to do is forget about you
All I want to do is forget about you, and the things you do, to me
Oh baby, it's not your fault
It just wasn't meant to be

Boy, it didn't take long for you to bounce right back
Me? I look like I smoked an ounce of crack
I can't get humped, never been in such a slump
It's like every girl I meet can tell I just got dumped
I get head from hookers, but It's just not the same
I sit alone in my car in the rain and think of how you told me not to call y ou again
I can't escape it, I'm always in pain
Working out helps, hit the sauna after
Rifle to your trashcan at night looking for condom wrappers
Maybe we'd be better off if one of us was dead
I'll flip a coin, heads or tails, I'll let you know how it went

All I want to do is forget about you
All I want to do is get you out of my head
All I want to do is forget about you
All I want to do is forget about you, and the things you do, to me
Oh baby, it's not your fault
It just wasn't meant to be

Okay, it's official. She's dating
I'm in my room watching porn, hallucinating
Walking to the store every time I hit a corner

I feel like I'm going to bump into Fiona
Every girl I see looks like her from behind
Even short men with long hair, I'm losing my mind
It's impossible to forget her
Wait, what if this guy's hitting it better?
What if this son of a bitch is rich with a nice place, and a dope ride, and a nice face?
Oh shit, what if he has a bigger dick?
And right now he's dickin her down with his iPhone taking pics?
Let's see. I need a knife, rope and masking tape
Part of me would like to see her fuck him while I masturbate
Did I just say that out loud?
I think I could use a new girl right about now

I guess I'm sorry I was mean to you (mean to you)
I never meant to make you sad
If I had the chance to change my ways, I'd probably stay the same
Don't ask me to apologize
'Cause I'm a piece of shit

All I want to do is forget about you
All I want to do is get you out of my head
All I want to do is forget about you
All I want to do is forget about you, and the things you do, to me
Oh baby, it's not your fault
It just wasn't meant to be
