

Han Solo

Madchild

Yo
Overlord of rap overqualified
Unleashed a quick 16, that's a homicide
Goldfish to a whale I'm a Razorback
You ain't a Killah you a pussy playing laser tag
Yeah, I'm not your average champion
Shit I just raid another savages anthem
Vampire on stage I'm a ravenous phantom
Snapping on a track like I'm having a tantrum
Broke away from the pack I'm the wildest horse
So for the last couple years no child support
Went back underground collecting Kyber crystals
Lightsaber back on but the child's got issues

Everything is real dark and if Madchild wrote it
The bad guys quote it some fragile moments
Sitting thinking while I smoke a pack of Marlboros
Lolo's gone but I can't put up with the dark robes
World's gone to hell but I'm optimistic
Every verse I disperse it's apocalyptic
Aye I'm making money but I stay in the trenches
Bunch of bullshit I don't like paying attention
My demons I don't want to battle em' no more
So I battle with myself through, threw my shadow on the floor
Listen homie you don't have to reinvent the wheel
I'm relentless in this game with the intent to kill

Yeah crazy lunatic can't help that I'm gifted
No arguing I'm targeting or fist fighting twisted
Misguided misfits just lighting incense
Just writing exciting lines that are intense
For instance, my insiders instant and inciting mischief
When I'm good as this should I still write at Christmas

I just might have made it but I just might have missed it
When I get too faded that's when I get too distant
Last year I was in a gloomy place
Now I'm back with the pen I illuminate
Trendsetter got cash to accumulate
You're just a bunch of bathing apes I am human-made
