Madchild

The lights are blinding, polarize, solarize
Terror, terror
I'm feeling nothing you're demise, alibis
Terror, terror

Terrorizing till its paralyzing
Take a look into my soul very scary eyes
You can see the experience it is agonizing
When I was younger I was cocky and antagonizing
Broke the wall down mean the happy that's surprising
Now watch the phoenix from the ashes rising
Bear witness to pure terror gifted
While still uplifting the kids get sickness
Mad rap like a pit bull on crack
Still spit like I'm hot and I fit on a track
I got a split personality I slay others
Both legends but I'm crazy like the Kray brothers

Feeling numb
Feeling numb
Feeling cold
I am afraid
Masquerade, a parade
I'm alone

The lights are blinding polarize, solarize
Terror, terror
I'm feeling nothing you're demise, alibis
Terror

Nothing change ice running through my veins still
Risk got an angel and life's still painful
Coiled serpent home sober cobra lies
Try my hardest spend some time to tell her sober lies
You get the picture like it's polarized (globalized)
Travel round the world and boldly vocalize
Spit so cold I'm an ice sculpture
Fuck with my culture you'll see fine vultures
Truth is blinding like a light so I lived in darkness
Fell down the rabbit hole empty so became heartless
I wore a mask like I robbed bodegas
Became the boogie man and bought bought Jager

Too sick kill quick like I'm John Wick
I'd rather buy a Kaws print than a dart sprint
I'm only human so of course I made a lot of errors
But fuck with me I guarantee I'll fill your life with (Terror, terror, terror, terror...)

Feeling numb
Feeling numb
Feeling cold
I am afraid
Masquerade, a parade
I'm alone

The lights are blinding, polarize, solarize

Terror, terror
I'm feeling nothing you're demise, alibis
Terror, terror

The lights are blinding, polarize, solarize
Terror, terror
I'm feeling nothing you're demise, alibis
Terror
