

Underground King

Madchild

I'm a dangerous demented fuck in a truck dented up
Venting cause I'm bent from drinking caffeine in a venti cup
Walk in to a club look at me like: "You don't belong here"
They run away like I'm a motherfucking bomb scare
Harsh dark cartoon character
Walk through the park, sharp harpoon carrier
The kid's vicious like a pitbull terrier
Rip a subject from the Czech Republic to Bulgaria
Of course I'm a scary pirate with with a fortune buried right b eside
A mortuary, riding through an orchard on a horse and carriage
I left the gangs cause I am sick of all the conduct
They wanna kill me like I'm a fucking joker from La Honda Lookin' for the light but I see trouble down yonder
Split personality, so I'm a double entendre
They tried to pull me down except for the knots
Now I'm a rebel; you can revel in these devilish thoughts

My mouth is full of fireworks like its July 4th Life force, look at my reflection like a mind warp
Time warp, giant iron dwarf on an iron horse
Riding high up in the sky above a lying crying corpse
Let's decide, I'm a restless lion with the best design
Hard wired barbed wire fence, I'm electrifying
Mystifying, metal fists are flying from a chest of iron Petrifying all you little insects, I'm pesticide Just been fired for being the least admired, I'm a beast at fir e
I make a golden reject teach, fulfilling each desire Introverted hermit, turn myself into a true artist
These kids retarded, they just party and they spew garbage
You're not a real gangsta, you're not a crack dealer
Why the rest feel like they gotta rap like Drake or Mac Miller?
Not me! Rap immaculately! I'm spectacular. Dracula
I'm a fuckin' wacko that's a track killer

I'm the underground king, underground king, underground king
When I'm around something special happened every time
I'm the underground king, underground king, underground king
Now it's clear that I'm here for a real reason
