Undertow

Madder Mortem

Something's changing I feel I see Tearing me to dust Stillborn laughter My master is here How do I know? Undertow tells me so Down I go Hard-eyed mirrors I look I see Longing to be air Long time missing, but waiting around How do I know? Undertow tells me so I'm lethal So stay forever under arms When only fear holds you together You'll come dancing Leave them all Starving proudly I sleep I win Gone with the wind Fairyland waiting If I'm small enough, I'll go in How do I know? Undertow tells me so
