

Right Here, Right Now

Maddie & Tae

Stop thinking about it, been dancing all around it
Standing here at my door
And I know you want to and I know I want you
So whatchu waiting for?

'Cause I got a feeling and I think you're feeling it, too
Go on and steal it, my heart's ready for you

Yeah, I see you lean in, kiss me like you mean it
Don't just say goodnight
Standing face to face is just too good to waste
Go on and close your eyes
And put your lips on mine, there ain't no better time
Than right here, right now tonight

No reason to be shy, you don't even need to try
You had me from hello
You've got the chance, now take it, it's your move for making
Don't let this moment go

'Cause I got a feeling and I think you're feeling it, too
Go on and steal it, my heart's ready for you

Yeah, I see you lean in, kiss me like you mean it
Don't just say goodnight
Standing face to face is just too good to waste
Go on and close your eyes
And put your lips on mine, there ain't no better time
Than right here, right now tonight

Right here tonight

I got a feeling and I think you're feeling it, too
Go on and steal it, my heart's ready for you

Yeah, I see you lean in, kiss me like you mean it
Don't just say goodnight
Standing face to face is just too good to waste
Go on and close your eyes
And put your lips on mine, there ain't no better time
Than right here, right now tonight

Right here, right now tonight
