

Inside this fiery heart
Inside this fiery heart
Sudden change, still cool and dark, oh yeah
Yeah

You're bruised, well so am I
You're bruised, well so am I
I look for things I could not find, oh yeah
Gonna leave that all behind
Oh yeah

Well, this is the fog
This is the rain
This is the blues
Oh yeah
We do with each other, whatever we choose
Oh yeah

This song, this song, I know very well
This face, this face, I know very well

A shot of blood shoots through my veins, oh yeah
Bloodless, spraining at it's veins
Oh yeah, yeah

So come on, come on, let me get behind you
Come on now, come on now, love, come on
Hey you, hey you, hey, hey you

Oh
Alright, alright, alright

Come on
This is the rain
This is the fog
This is the blues
Oh yeah

I give you directions, again and again
Oh yeah, again
Come on, come on now
Oh, that's it
