

You Better Leave

Madrugada

Flies in your window Junk in your mail Some ragged old sorrow
Hot on your trail

No-one comes to you Not even in your dreams There ain't nothing moving through you It's all as bad as it seems

She is a shadow Of something you wanted How badly you wanted it
It still drives you insane

You're a dirty man to want her And you were junk for letting go You're a fool to even wanna be around her Those other people you don't even wanna know

You can't hold up in Close to your heart You can't hold up in
You just tear things apart

You better leave Leave a reed shadow A late night reed shadow
To the ivory room

You better leave Leave a reed shadow A late night reed shadow
To the ivory room

She is a shadow Of something you wanted How badly you wanted it
It still drives you insane
