

Heartsong

Maggie Reilly

I walk in silence
Though my soul repeats your name
Across a thousand years
I know you feel the same
I never listened to my heartsong
Then I looked at you

The whispers come to me
Beyond the sounds of time
Help me believe that maybe
Now you could be mine
I should have listened to my heartsong
I never knew

But every moment spent apart
Is the longest

The planets sparkle
All the stars are on the run
Mirrored reflections cast
A shadow on the sun
I must have listened to my heartsong
When I looked at you
