

Where the Rivers Run

Maggie Reilly

We were young and so free
World was at our feet
We were invincible
We thought we'd always be

Playing music
Going heart to heart
I was thought that you win all

I remember dancin' in the sun
In the summers, life had just begun
When I'm lonely that's where I return
To where the rivers run

We had fun, we had time
We had fashion on our side
We were unstoppable
And never saw the signs

Glasgow to London
Travelin' town to town
Nothing ever brought us down

I remember dancin' in the sun
In the summers, life had just begun
When I'm lonely that's where I return
To where the rivers run

Listen awhile, I think of you
And wonder how are you
I hope that time's been good to you
I hope that all your.....