

Makes me feel cool when I say your name
Especially now when I masturbate
Makes me feel cool when I'm in control
Of the power you dish out like a salad roll
Watch me now as I pull down the blind
Take off your shirt and show me your white side
Is it red?
Is it black?
Is it wrong to want you back?
When I'm a good girl you come running
Makes me feel cool when I say your name
Especially now when I masturbate
I never felt so hollow when it felt so wrong to follow you around
Baby, when you're in the same room as me
I can't move
I can't move
It's no tricks
You're not that thick, no
This song is definitely about you
I'm obsessed with everything you do
You're so tall
I can't remember you
I hardly care about your face at all
I'm in love with everything from your neck to the floor
I just can't stand in the same room
'Cause you're a boy
'Cause you're a girlboy.
