THE WITCH, THE ANGEL, THE KING, THE KNIGHT, AND THE DEMON
QUID HABET AUREM AUDIAT
QUID SPIRITUS DICAT REGES
VIDE APPOLYON MALEDICTUM CUM GLADIUS MAGNUS MORTIS ARBITRIUM, INFERNUS IN TERRA
Ooh, I'm coming from heaven to wake up the king and his knights, disaster is coming, be careful, Evil is rising After ten thousand centuries in the shadows of the valley of Abaddon, the seventh gate of hell is open My damned children will conquer this world and I'll be free Darkness's coming!
I will defend
My spell will kill
Arrows will fly
You're gonna cry
Your time has come
You're already dead
You were a friend
I was lying Deep in the heart of death; black abyss will never taste my blood and I will be glorious, I'll send you back into your infernal cage
I am Tazira the witch and I will give you temptation
I am the King Dragonson, I promise you death in this satanic war
The Witch, the Angel, the King, the Knight and the Demon
You will pay for this betrayal
Ridiculous soldier, chaos will rule
Your God will fall!
there's only one lord
Our faith is bigger, we're not afraid Deep in the heart of war, Inferno will never have my soul, and we'll be victorious, we'll send them back into their infernal flames
I am the fallen angel
Our reign of terror will come
My King is serving the lord
And our sword will give you the law
The Witch, the Angel, the King, the Knight and the Demon
We're lost in temptation, we want the glory
We'll see the fire, raise this cup of eternity
We are all damned souls, we've lost our liberty
We'll see the liars into this cup of victory Witch, you've open the gate, you will burn to clear your sins and your crimes, ooh Oooh, I'm burning in the flames of Christ, my work is done but like the phoenix I will rise again...
Oooh; light of truth's too strong, forgive my sins My son, Army of the Six Golden Towers is ready, guide these warriors to victory King, you will die in your holy kingdom and you will understand my eternal pain
The war is beginning, the beast wants our soul
Holy power will give you the strength to resist his lies
I am back from death and the beast is my father your golden defenders will kiss my flesh and drink my blood Knights of the Magic Kingdom, be proud and fight
The light must be back
Now we are victorious, we've sent them back to their infernal flames

Now, we see the light again, Legion of death disappeared You'll see the baptism of fire when the black dragon will rise from hell
The Witch, the Angel, the King, the Knight and the Demon
This story will never end 'cause we are in you and we will be back
