

So Fragile

Magic Kingdom

I saw the strong, I saw the brave
But what life does is so unfair
Who pulls the strings and breaks the fate ?
A golden heart is now no more

No one could ever know the end
No one could know when the time has come
We have to struggle in this world
Till the last goodbye, life is so fragile
So fragile

The older I get the less I see
Is there a meaning to all this ?
The only fact that I am sure
We all end up biting the dust

No one could ever know the end
No one could know when the time has come
We have to struggle in this world
Till the last goodbye, life is so fragile
So fragile

The older I get the less I see
Is there a meaning to all this ?
Who pulls the strings and breaks the fate ?
A golden heart is now no more

No one could ever know the end
No one could know when the time has come
We have to struggle in this world
Till the last goodbye, life is so fragile
So fragile
