

Temple of No Gods

Magic Kingdom

The night has fallen and the hordes prepare for war
They sailed from far beyond the mysterious north
They seek the Saxons' gold and to expand their lands
They came to claim the body of their fallen king
Sons of the viking lord look for revenge
Ten thousand warriors blinded by rage

In the temple of no gods
They are pagans, they are lords
They will spare none, they will feast tonight
In the temple of no gods
In the temple of no gods
They will burn the holy cross
They will never die, Odin's on their side
In the temple of no gods

Their mission is to hunt like wolves hungry for blood
None is safe tonight, they'll die by the sword
Victory was promised in the oracle runes
Vengeance is calling, no mercy in this strange land

In the temple of no gods
They are pagans, they are lords
They will spare none, they will feast tonight
In the temple of no gods
In the temple of no gods
They will burn the holy cross
They will never die, Odin's on their side
In the temple of no gods
