

After The Rain

Magnum

Why don't you wait
Before you decide?
There's no need to run
Let love be your guide

So stay
Don't tell me you might
I need to believe
You'll be here tonight

'Cause I'm here and I'll just be
Waiting, hoping, praying

After the rain there's a river of fire
You're lost on the road to nowhere
'Cause after the rain comes the thrill of desire
You turn around, no one's there

Oh, deep
Inside everyone
There's something we need
The right to belong

But I'm here and I'll just be
Waiting, hoping, praying

After the rain there's a river of fire
You're lost on the road to nowhere
'Cause after the rain comes the thrill of desire
You turn around, no one's there

You tell me your troubles and I'll tell you more
Bad times, you're the pretender
I'll tell you something that I can't ignore
Sad times, what's to remember?

After the rain
After the rain there's a river of fire
You're lost on the road to nowhere
After the rain
'Cause after the rain comes the thrill of desire
You turn around, no one's there

After the rain
After the rain there's a river of fire
You're lost on the road to nowhere
After the rain
'Cause after the rain comes the thrill of desire
You turn around, no one's there
After the rain
Said after the rain
