

All The Dreamers

Magnum

The weekend's started
It sounds like thunder
And they've come miles to be
Inside this fairground
Of noise and wonder
It's there for all to see

The lights are blazing
The smoke is rising
It's going to chase your heart
With no exception
That's not surprising
Just like a brand new start

All the dreamers will come
And they bring heart and soul
'Cause they're all here to rock and roll
All the dreamers will come
What they bring will be gold
'Cause they're all here to rock and roll

It's going to get crazy
Everyone will be a star
Getting it all back on the line
It's going to get crazy
Doesn't matter who you are
Everyone here will have a time

No hesitation
To sing forever
Tomorrow's so far gone
While things are changing
In equal measure
They just keep pushing on

They just keep rolling
And get together
That's everything they need
Just found and wanted
Can't get much better
They really do believe

All the dreamers will come
And they bring heart and soul
'Cause they're all here to rock and roll
All the dreamers will come
What they bring will be gold
'Cause they're all here to rock and roll

It's going to get crazy
Everyone will be a star
Getting it all back on the line
Doesn't matter who you are

One life

You've got to live it
One life
You've got to give it

All the dreamers will come
And they bring heart and soul
'Cause they're all here to rock and roll
All the dreamers will come
What they bring will be gold

It's going to get crazy
Everyone will be a star
Doesn't matter who you are
